

Caroline Stone is the Community Development worker for Hurst Farm Matlock. Caroline has worked for Derbyshire Dales Council for Voluntary Service since 2005. Prior to this she worked in the same role for Peak District Rural Deprivation Forum. Since joining the CVS Caroline has attended several courses in relation to her post and the most recent one being a Management Development course. Caroline studied for a degree in Urban and Regional Studies along with a Diploma in Social Work at Sheffield Hallam University. Caroline has also studied to gain a Diploma in Drug and Alcohol Abuse and used her qualification for many years working within Social Services until she got the post as a Development Worker. In 2008 Caroline played a major role in setting up the Matlock Youth Hub and served as Treasurer until she stepped down in 2010. Outside of work Caroline has a wide range of interests which include growing her own vegetables, reading, and walking.