

Trish King has worked as Signpost Project Worker for the Chesterfield area since November 2007, firstly with NCH and on renewal of the contract in June 2008 transferred over to DDCVS. Trish is originally from Norfolk and her previous role was as Centre Manager for Connexions Norfolk. Prior to that she spent seven years working within the NHS where she coordinated and chaired QA Visits to Colposcopy and Pathology Labs throughout the whole of East Anglia. She relocated to Derbyshire in 2007. Trish enjoys playing the Bass Guitar in a Rock Chick band, reading, theatre, live music and helping with the local am dram group.