

Derbyshire Dales CVS is a membership organisation supporting local voluntary groups, individuals and statutory partners.

Membership strengthens our collective voice, shapes future services, and ensures the voluntary sector is represented strategically.

Members receive access to exclusive benefits, discounts on services and support. Joining is easy and it's free.

Please see www.ddcvs.org.uk/membership for more details or email enquiries@ddcvs.org.uk for a membership form.

About DDCVS

Our Aim is to promote strong, sustainable and healthy communities through voluntary and community action.

We offer a number of services here at Derbyshire Dales CVS. Many are free of charge such as support in developing a policy for your group or looking for funding for your group.

In addition we can help with recruitment, reprographics and office space.

We offer bespoke consultancy to groups that request specific help; this is usually a charge-for service.

We offer advice on:

- Governance guidance
- Legal structure advice
- Policy development
- Funding support
- Planning and evaluation
- Project development
- Networking with other organisations
- Tailored training

We offer paid services:

- Away days
- Forward planning sessions
- Board development sessions
- Examination of accounts
- Organisational reviews

Please contact the development team on 01629 812154 ext.1 with any enquiries or email enquiries@ddcvs.org.uk
